PARKING

The Baum School of Art will provide 2 hours of free parking for the parking deck on Linden Street between 6th and 7th Streets on the left hand side of the street. Ask at the front desk of the School for parking stamps to validate ticket. This deck closes in the evening. Closing hours are posted at the entrance of the deck.

There is a State Parking Lot after the School on Linden Street, between 5th and 6th Streets on the left hand side of the street. Students must pay at the booth for a designated amount of time and display ticket on their front dashboard. $1 per 1 hour. (The School provided parking stamps are not valid in this lot.) Monday through Friday parking is free in this lot after 6:00 pm. Saturdays and Sundays are free.

Students may park on the streets surrounding the school using the parking meters. The meters take quarters (one quarter for 15 minutes). Students can make change at the front desk if needed. Parking is free at the meters after 6:00 pm.

There is a small lot owned by the Baum School directly besides the building. Students may park in spaces not marked reserved.
